

OHS Law: Act, Regulations, Reference Guides, Codes of Practice & Brochures

Nova Scotia's Occupational Health and Safety Act provides for the promotion, co-ordination, administration and enforcement of occupational health and safety in Nova Scotia. It is monitored by the OHS Division of the Dept. of Labour & Workforce Development. The Division's 'Publications' page includes all health and safety legislation, reference guides, codes of practice, related support materials, through to brochures, posters and videos.

To view the 'Publications' page, go to www.gov.ns.ca/lae/healthandsafety/pubs.asp

It will include links to:

- Fall Protection and Scaffolding Regulations
- Workplace Hazardous Materials Information System Regulations (WHMIS)
- Occupational Health and Safety First Aid Regulations
- Occupational Safety General Regulations
- Violence in the Workplace Regulations
- Temporary Workplace Traffic Control Regulations
- Occupational Diving Regulations
- Smoke-free Places Regulations
- Occupational Health Regulations
- Occupational Health and Safety Appeal Panel Regulations
- Underground Mining Regulations
- Blasting Safety Regulations
- Administrative Penalties

and to other standards, codes of practice and documents such as:

- 'Fish Safe'
- 'Health & Safety Guide for New Retail Workers'.
- 'Preventing Violence, Robbery & Theft'
- 'Which Labour Laws Apply to You?'

Please see the 'Educators' tab of www.worksafeforlife.ca for more information.